

CSW Teacher Position Description

Classical School of Wichita adheres a philosophy of education that includes the ideas of Padeia to enunciate students. That Padeia is created by employing teachers who Love students, Love learning, and Love Christ. Teachers who possess this trifecta of passions are better equipped to develop life long learners who love Christ, seek wisdom, and serve mankind.

	Christ	Students	Learning
	Role-model in speech, actions and attitude a consistent personal relationship with Jesus Christ	Motivate students to accept God's gift of salvation and to grow in their faith	Teach assigned classes following the prescribed scope/sequence
	Member in good standing of a local Church	Recognize parents as responsible before God for their child's education and assist them in the task	Plan a program of instruction through the use of course objectives and daily lesson plans
	Follow the Matthew 18 principle when dealing with students, parents, staff and administration	Develop and maintain a professional reports with students and parents.	Use homework effectively for drill, review, enrichment, or project work
	Encourage students in their (daily) relationship with Christ	Supervise students during assigned duties and extra-curricular activities	Enhance the opportunity for student mastery of the subject material by utilizing teaching techniques that employ a variety of instructional aids and methods
	Creatively and consistently integrate biblical principles in the curriculum	Attend extra-curricular activities when possible	Plan a program of study that, as much as possible, meets individual student needs and interests, challenging each to do her/his best work
	Show by example the importance of prayer, Scripture study and unity in Christian fellowship	Keep proper discipline in the classroom and on the school premises for a good learning environment	Assess the learning of students on a regular basis, provide required progress reports and maintain grade reports for accurate knowledge of each student's progress
	Refuse to use or circulate confidential information in an inappropriate manner	Keep students, parents, and the administration adequately informed of student progress	Contribute to the general improvement of the school program
	Respectfully submit and demonstrate loyalty to constituted authority	Maintain a clean, attractive, well-ordered classroom	Attend/participate in scheduled devotional, in-service, committee and faculty meetings
		Make an effort to appreciate and understand the uniqueness of the CSW community	Maintain a teachable attitude

A teacher should be willing and able to cooperate with the administration in implementing policies, procedures and directives governing the operation of the school and will notify the administration of any policy she/he is unable to support. The teacher will utilize educational opportunities and evaluation process for professional growth and development.